I am very excited to announce Bubba's Pampered Pedalers is going greener and cleaner.

First, by providing Eco Friendly, made in America, disposable bath towels and wash cloths These strong and absorbent towels/wash cloths leave less of an environmental footprint than laundering cloth bath towels. The water and chemicals used and discarded are much more detrimental to the long term survival of the earth than the recycled product used in the manufacture of these disposable towels not to mention the electricity and water used/wasted washing and drying the cloth towels along with the gasoline driving to and from the laundromat multiple times a day.

Do they look the same? NO Do they feel the same? NO Do they dry the same? YES

Disposable towels are also cleaner for you, the rider, because they reduce the risk of exposure to bacteria and viruses. Even when washed and dried under ideal conditions, cloth towels can carry germs. With disposable towels, you are the only one ever to use the towel thus reducing greatly the risk of exposure to bacteria and/or viruses.

After using these disposable towels, you have two choices. You can bring them back to camp dry them on your tent and use them once again in the morning to wash-up or perhaps clean your bike. Others use them to dry off their tent before packing away or as a foot mat for the front of their tent. Perhaps you can find yet another use. Talk about Eco Friendly., recycling an already recycled product.

I have personally tried several styles and manufactures before deciding on the disposable towel I will offer. After all, second best is something I do not strive for nor will accept. These disposable towels really work great! "If they can dry me, they can dry anyone". I am confident you will agree.
